How to use the olpc MAP

How to plant marker!

The marker shows your location. To place a marker for your project, zoom in to your location and click on the 'Join the Map Network'.

How to plant marker!

If you want to you can move the marker to the correct location, just click and hold to move the marker. You will not be able to move the marker after you have clicked on the box marked 'Plant Marker'.
If you make more markers than you need, simply restart the map, and the markers will disappear. Type your e-mail address in the box, then click 'Plant Marker'.

How to assign name and description of your project
Type in the name of the contact person assigned to the project.
Directly beneath you can type a short description of your project.
In the bottom box where it says 'Group name', you can type in your group or project name.

How to assign an icon and a photo to your project

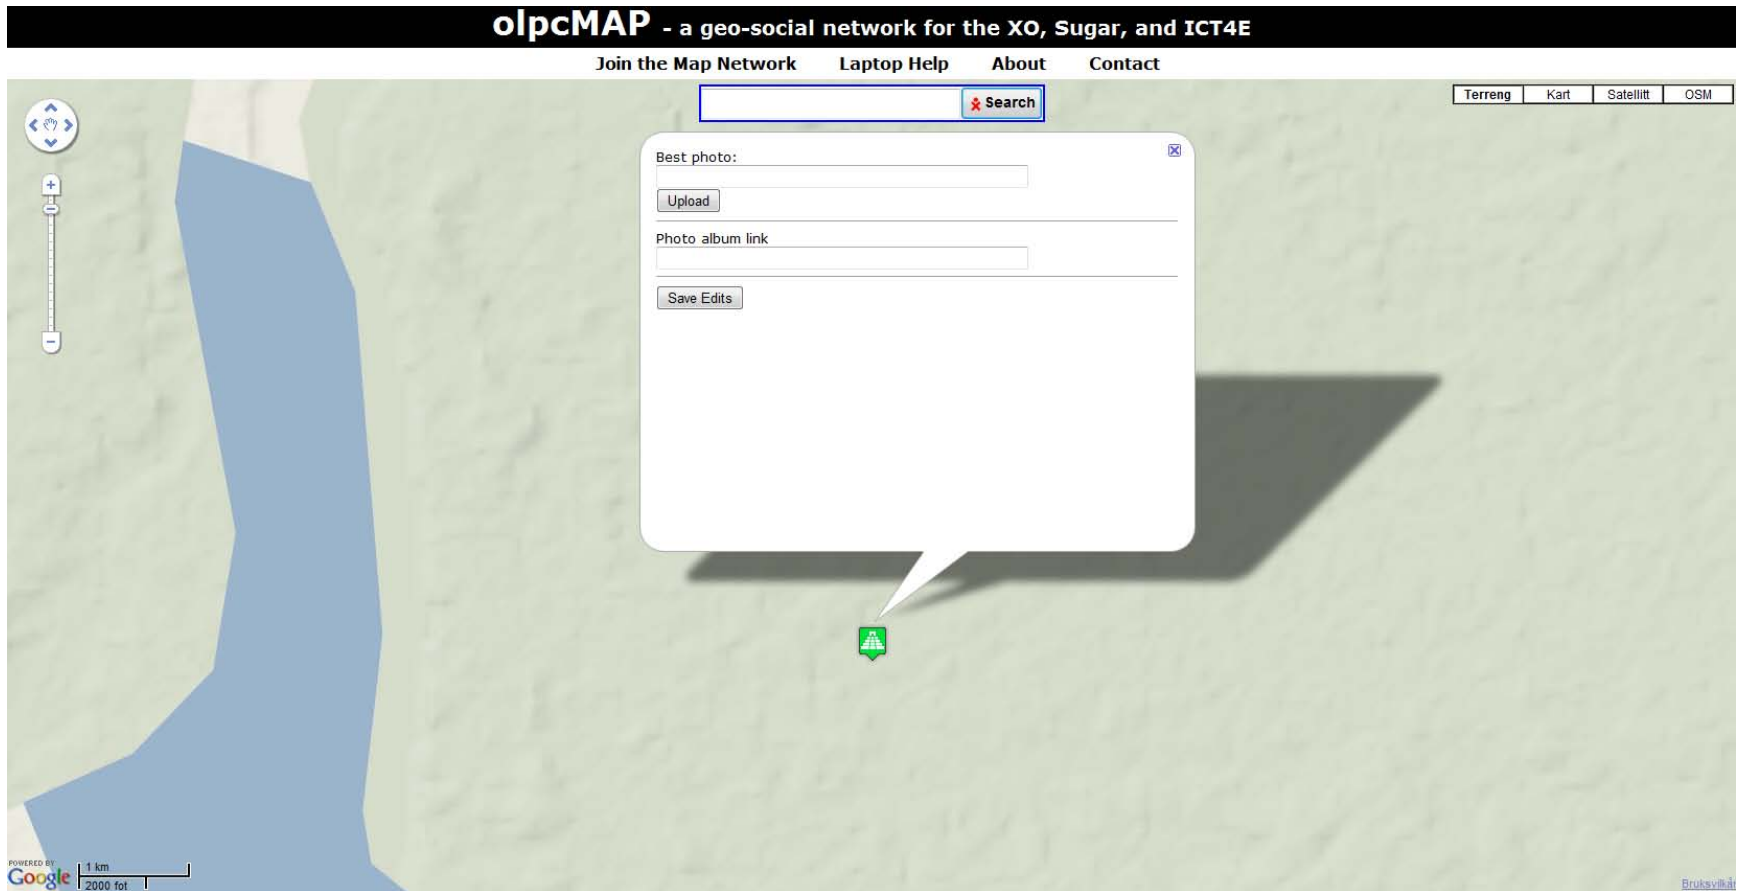

Press 'Icon & Photo' to assign an icon and a photo from your computer or from a webpage.

How to assign an icon and a photo to your project
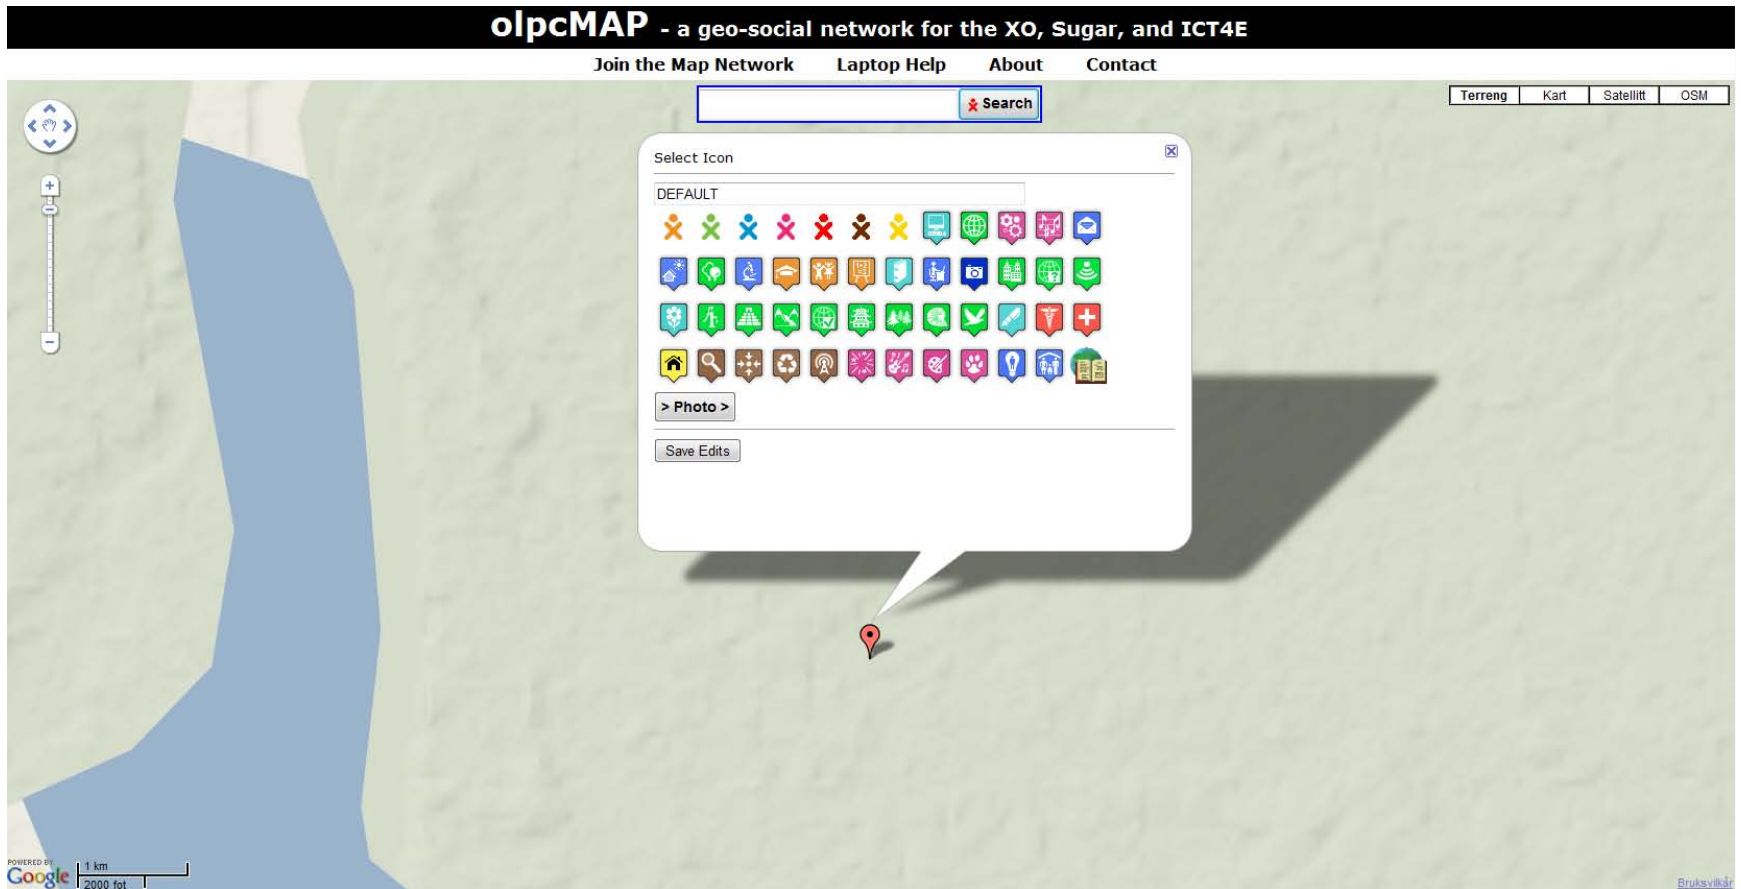

Click on the icon that best describes your project, then click 'Photo' to add a photo.

How to assign an icon and a photo to your project 1 🖳 → ✖ one laptop per child

Click 'Upload'.

How to assign an icon and a photo to your project 1 🔲 → ✗ one laptop per child

Now click 'browse' to select a photo from your computer.

How to assign an icon and a photo to your project

Click 'Upload' to create a link to the photo.
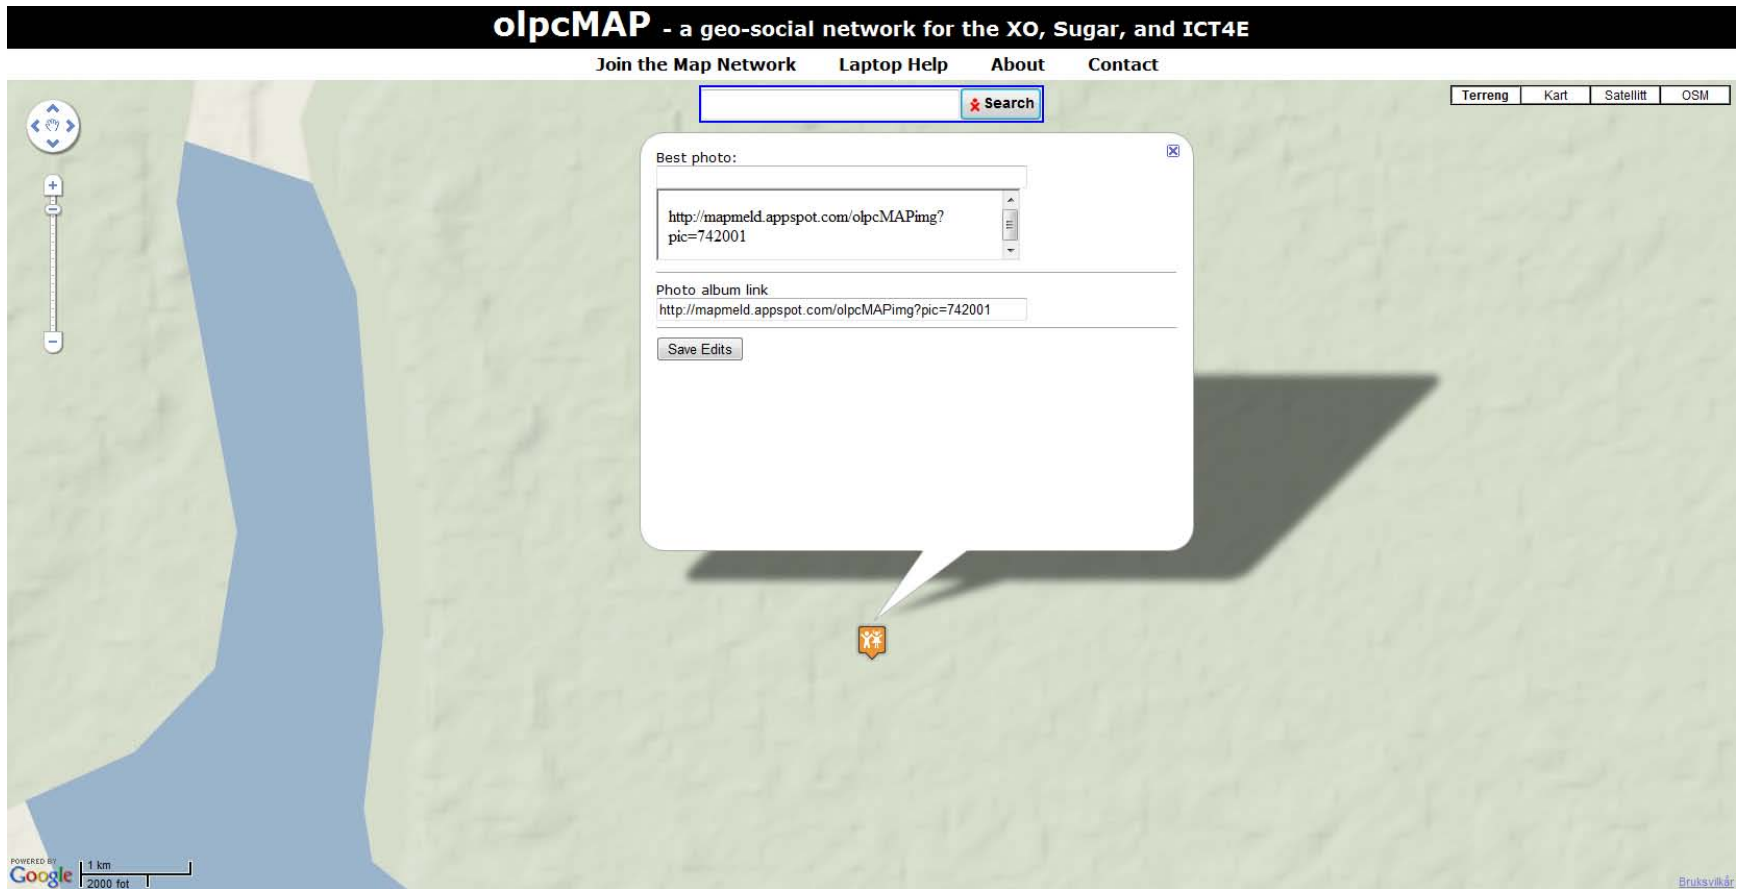

Next you have to copy the newly generated link address to the box marked 'Photo album link'.
Then click 'Save Edits'.

How to assign an icon and a photo to your project

You have now created a marker with information about your project. To view the information you have entered click your 'icon' to open the description.

How to assign an icon and a photo to your project

You can now click on 'View photos' to see the photo you just uploaded.

How to edit your project information.

Click 'Edit' to change or add project information.

How to edit your project information.
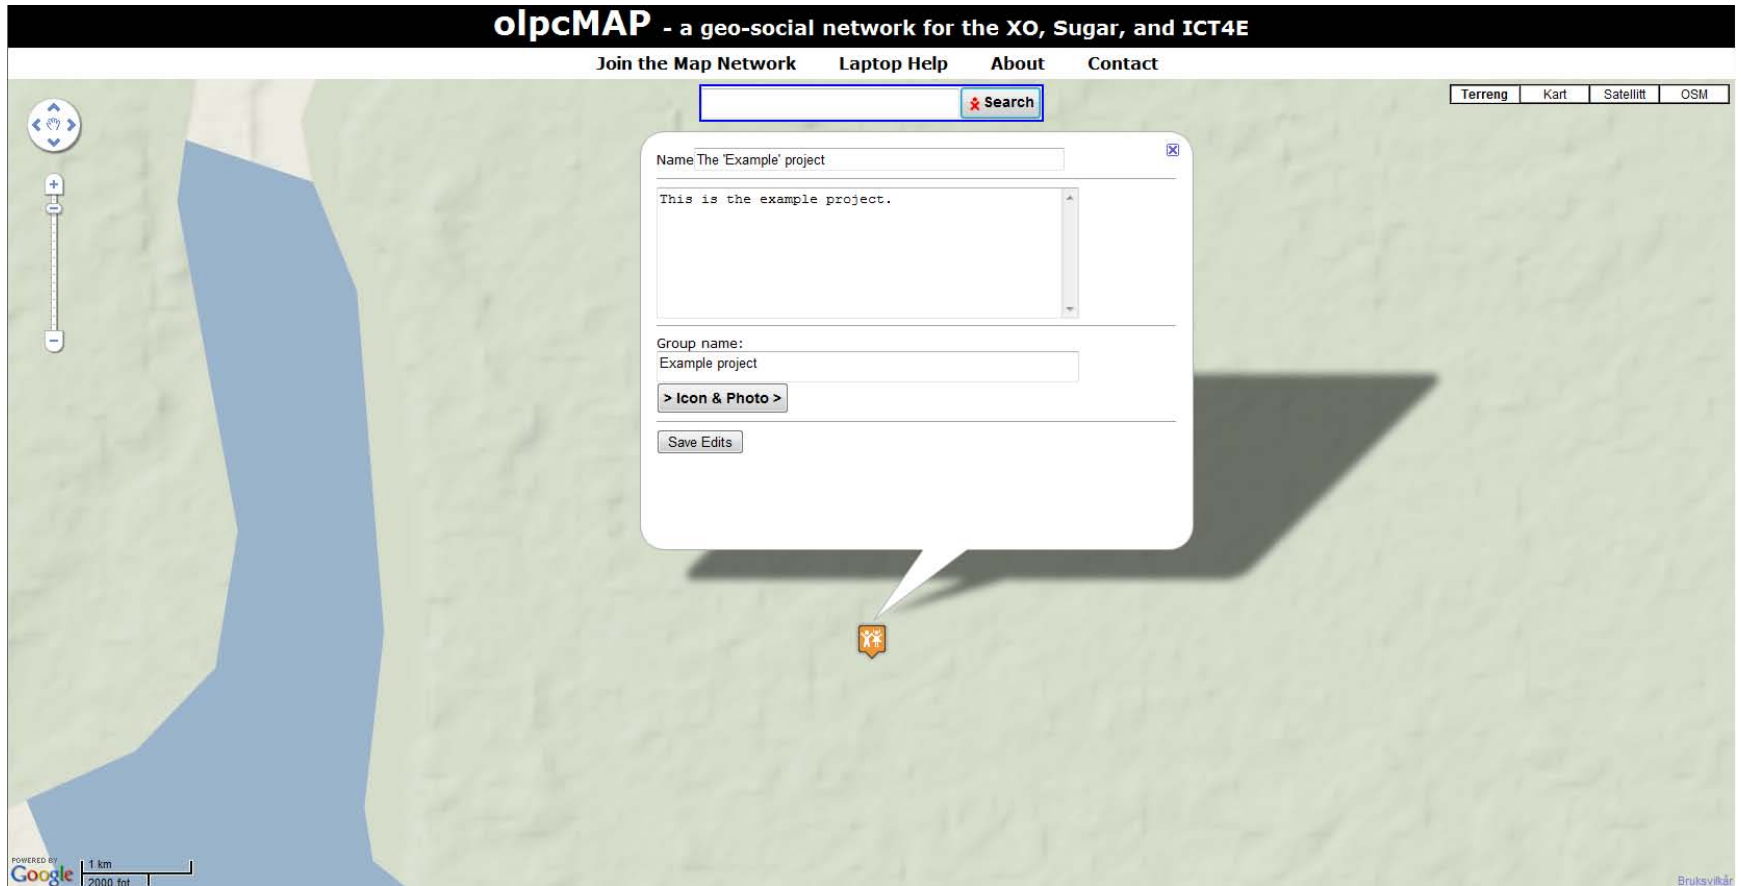

You can now edit project information, or add a new photo. When you are finished, click 'Save Edits' to save the changes.

How to add a link, to your front page.
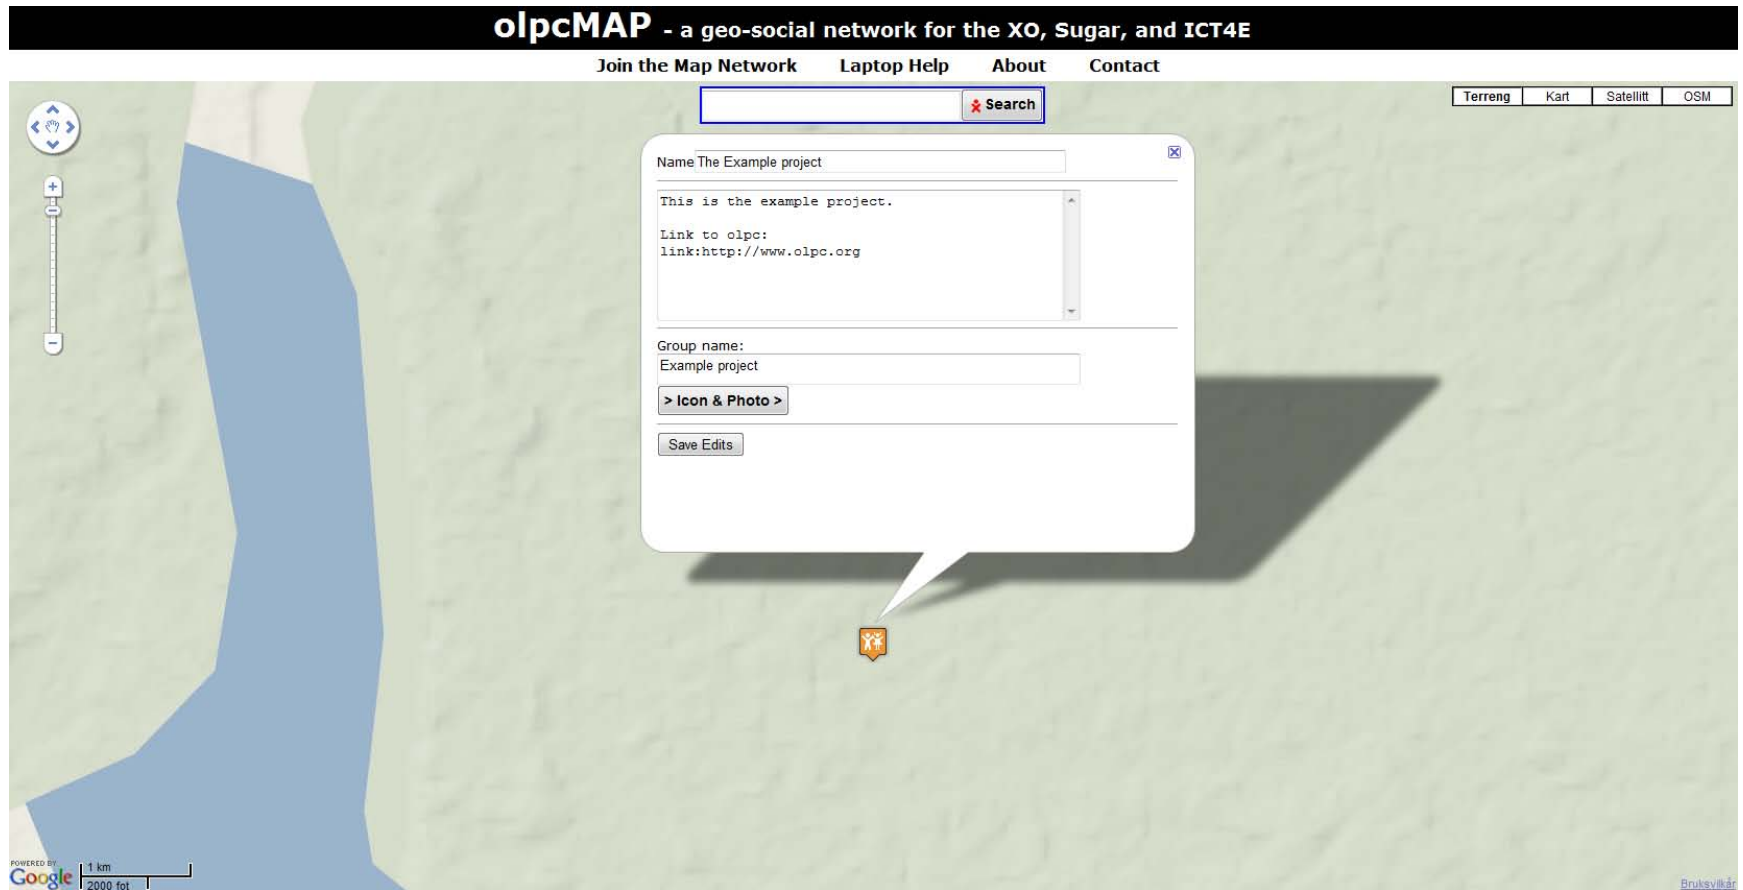

Click, on your project. Then click 'Edit'.
To add a link to another webpage, type in the link in the same way as in the box above.
Then click 'Save Edits'
The link will appear the next time you click on your marker.

How to add a photo to your front page.

Click, on your project. Then click 'Edit'.
Click 'Icon & Photo', then click 'Photo'
To add a photo to the front of your page, type the link address in the box above .
Then click 'Save Edits'
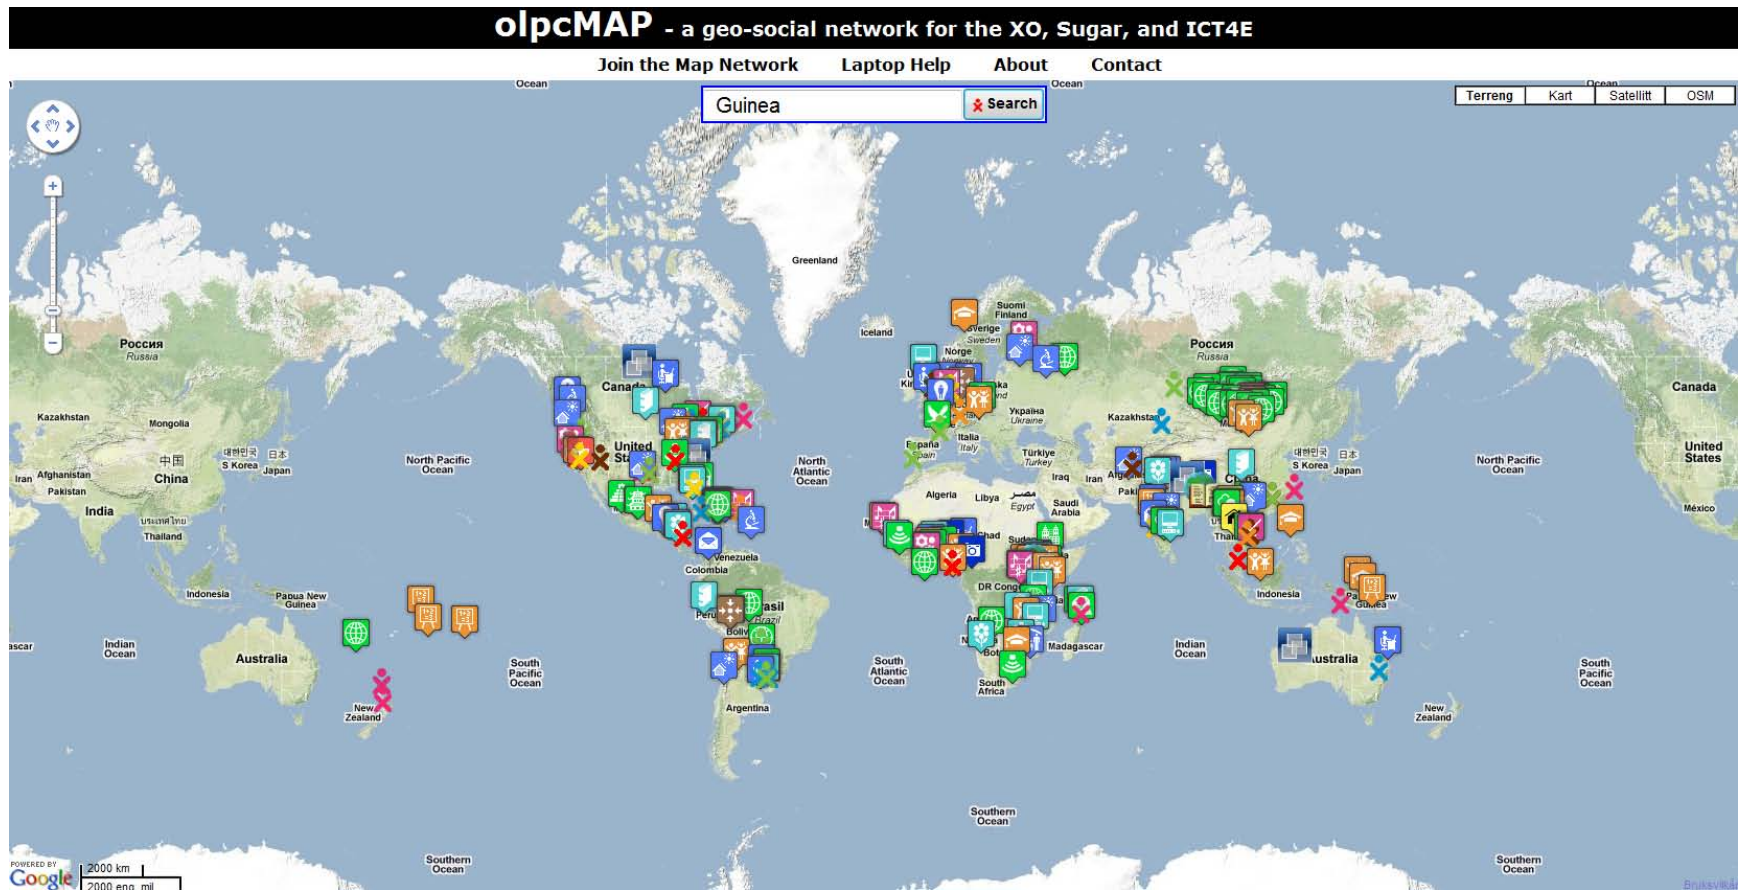

How to add a photo to your front page.

The next time you enter your front page you will see the picture you saved.

How to search for other projects or persons.

In the searchbox on top center of the map, type in either project, person or region/country you want to search for, then click the 'Search' button beside it.

How to search for other projects or persons.

Now the map will zoom to the location you entered.
On the left side of the map a box will appear.
Now you can click on the desired location to get to the project or person you were looking for.

How to search for other projects or persons.

The map will again zoom to the location you entered.
Now you can click on the desired location to get to the project or person you were looking for.

Other information about the olpcMAP
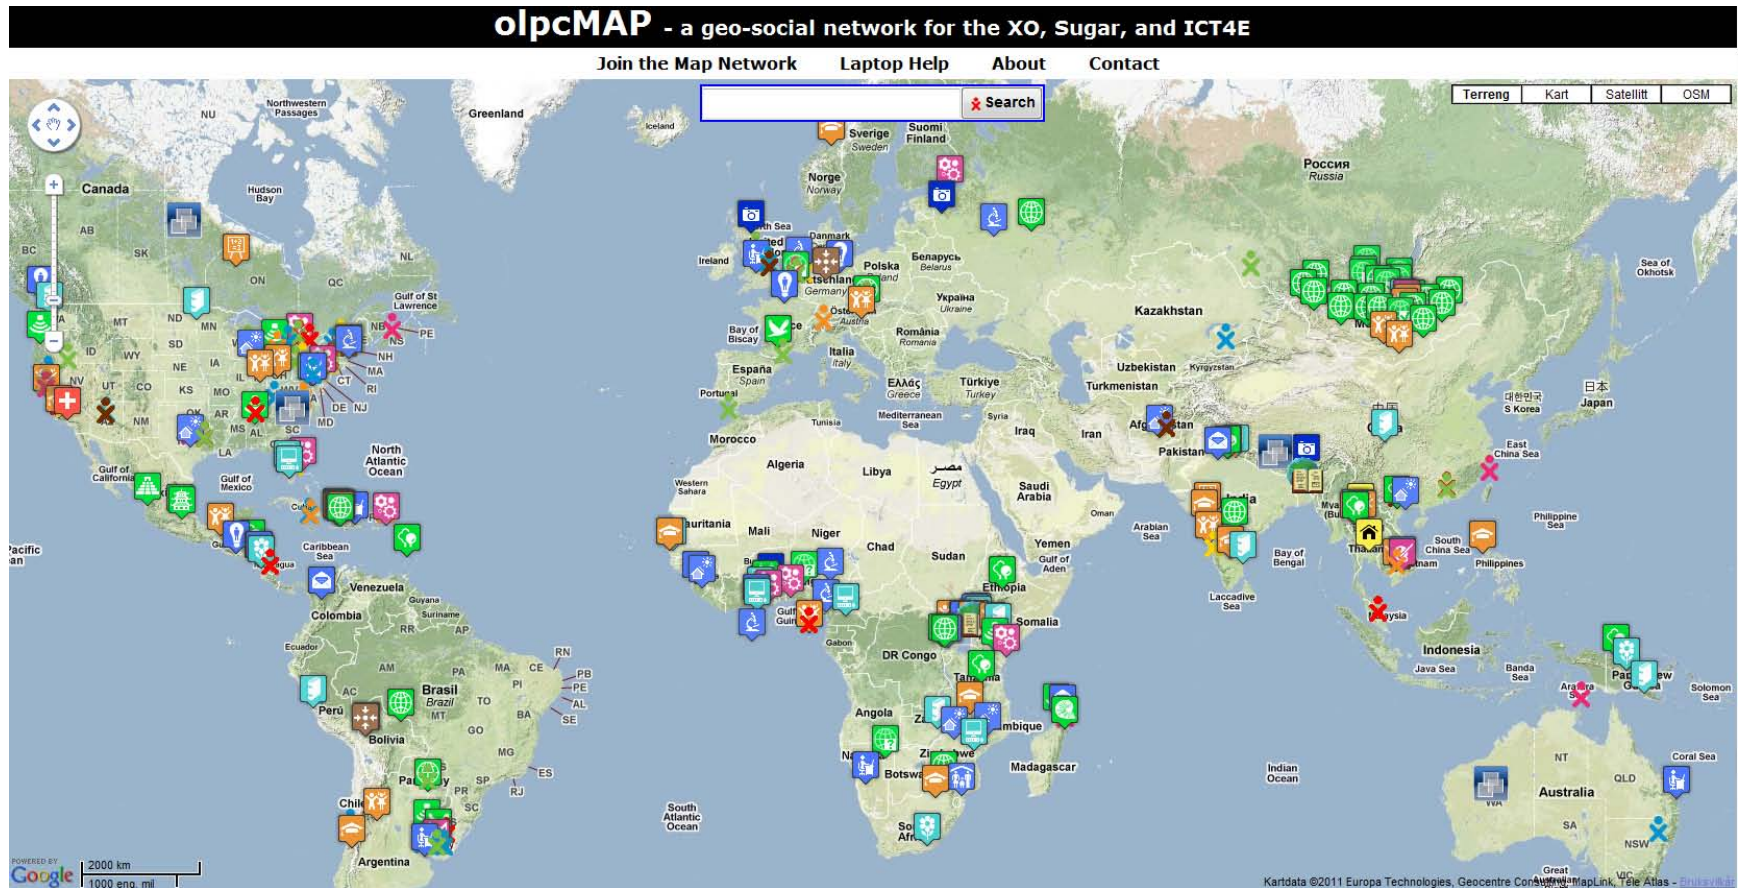

If you need help to use your laptop, click the 'Laptop Help' button on top of the map.
If you want to read about who created the olpcMAP click the 'About' button.
If you want to contact another project or person click the 'Contact' button, and type in their email address and your message.